

Holidays Around the World Project

Research Notes

Name of Holiday (Celebration or Observance) Festivals!

Research Notes	Sources
Who celebrates the holiday? The Costanza Family, & those "burned out" w/ holidays
Where is it celebrated? New York + around the world	festivismwch.com
What happens during the holiday? ^{is} about? It is a pushback to consumerism of the holidays!
Why is it celebrated? To remind us to remember the real innocence of holidays.
When is it celebrated? Monthly Dec 23RD
How is it celebrated? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Airing of Grievances - tell others how ^{then} disappointed you last year - Feats of Strengths head of household must be pinned - Aluminum Pole Started as a joke.

What's For Dinner? Create a dinner Menu based on Traditional foods served during the holiday. Be sure to a short description of the dish. List your source(s) at the bottom of the menu.

Traditional Menu for Festivals

Meatloaf on a bed
of lettuce

Spaghetti

"Big Salad"

Marble Rye

Beefarino

Jello with cut up bananas

Chip Ahoey Cookies

Ovaltine Ketchup

Source:

Festive Web

Cool Info I discovered About the Holiday! (List or write in box.)

"Happy Festivals"

"Festivals for the Rest of Us"

Ketchup & Mustard in same bottle